CHALLENGES WINNER

Miss Anna Bell Ward of This City
Wants a 5 Mile Swimming Try-Out With Miss Barnard.

Training for a swim by being pursued around the house and through the fields thereabouts by her brothers is the way Miss Anna Bell Ward of Maysville prepares herself for a swimming race. Miss Ward was one of the contestants entered in the women's race on Monday, but she could not start because of a sudden attack of illness. Just after Miss Frances Barnard of Dayton, Ky., finished first in the race, Monday, Miss Ward challenged the winner for a five-mile race. Miss Ward believes she has good grounds for a challenge, as she says she did three miles in the Ohio river in 1 hour and 25 minutes, which she says is 10½ minutes better than the time in which Miss Barnard negotiated the same distance. The young women swimmers use different strokes in swimming. Miss Barnard uses an over head stroke, while Miss Ward employs the Australian crawl. The Maysville young woman won a swimming race when she was 11 years old. The race took place in Lake Michigan off Chicago. In addition to that Miss Ward says she has won all of the races held at Maysville. She says her chest and lungs have developed wonderfully. She is a singer, and she says the continuous practice that is necessary for a singer has helped her "wind" to such an extent that she can swim five miles and not feel fatigued. She also is a tennis player. Miss Ward shows her versatility by mounting a picture show in Maysville. Miss Ward is willing to swim at any time that will be suitable for Miss Barnard, either this year or next.

MRS. ARMOUR'S LECTURE

Mrs. Mary Harris Aeppur, the whirlwind from Georgia, entertained a crowded house at the Courthouse last night with a two hours talk on Prohibition.

Mrs. Aeppur presented her arguments in favor of Prohibition in a clear, forceful way and made every word count.

The lecture was pronounced by many as the best ever given in this city or county.

KITCHENER OF KHARTOUM.

Destiny seems to have reserved Kitchener of Khartoum for the present hour in England. His appointment as head of the British war office in the existing crisis is the capstone of a career which fate seems to have shaped especially for such a contingency.

It sometimes seems as if Providence creates and then reserves men for some definite, if for the time remote, purpose and that neither ill fortune nor the temporary reverses which all men encounter affect the ultimate end. Wellington was reserved for Waterloo, Grant for the Virginia campaign, and so on through a long list. It may be that Kitchener of Khartoum, whose career has certainly fitted him directly for the grave responsibilities he has now assumed, has been following the same ordained path of destiny.

It was Kitchener who was picked for the terrible campaign in Khartoum and for the closing months of the Boer war. It was the same man who especially fitted to handle the complex problems in Egypt. It was Kitchener who was slated to tranquillize the restless anarchists of India. And there he would have been today with the greatest task of his career before him, had not destiny recalled him and placed suddenly in his hands one of still greater responsibility.

A genius in military science, a master hand in organization and a dynamic force in driving things to a conclusion, Earl Kitchener of Khartoum, like Sir Edward Grey, may have been raised for this very hour.—Times-Star.

$1,820,000,000 A YEAR.

Wage earners of the United States are getting a total of $5,000,000 a day less than when the Republican Tariff prevailed in the country. That is not psychic but a condition. It means a loss to the wage earners of $5,000,000 every day in the week and for 52 weeks a year. Sundays and all, and no vacation. And that means $1,820,000,000 a year. This is nearly twice as much as it costs for a reasonable government for the United States. There is no tolls repeal bill to improve that condition for the wage workers. There is no mediation. The South American republics do not consider it any of their business. Mexico goes along with its wars and sides issue troubles with the administration at Washington regardless of the tremendous losses of the wage earners of this country. There is not even a psychological state of mind applied to that big loss of nearly two billion dollars. Nobody seems to care about it. The tent on the grounds of the White House is not tipped over by strikers who object as wage earners to being robbed of almost two billion dollars a year. The faith of the people of this country is past understanding. The income tax on the rich is bringing in only about $23,000,000 a year, while the wage workers are losing $1,800,000,000. The difference is the price paid for the glory of the democracy.—Worcester Telegram.

SIC 'EM, TOWZER!

"Doctor's orders or not, I will stump Louisiana this fall," said Colonel Roosevelt in a letter received by Progressive leaders.

Why don't he go to Europe if he wants to fight. The only real fighting is going on there.

President Wilson might have used Bradley's motto: "Sit steady in the boat."

OKLAHOMA'S GOOD FORTUNE.

The defeat of "Al" Jennings—widely advertised as a former outlaw—for the gubernatorial nomination in Oklahoma is good fortune for Oklahoma, irrespective of the merits of Mr. Jennings, who seems now to be a most exemplary citizen.

A "past" is rarely entirely lived down. That of "Al" Jennings has been, to use a term of newspaper parlance, "played up." Capital has been made of it. The candidate wrote a book about his moral reconstruction, and it was published during the canvass. There is no disposition upon the part of the Courier-Journal to animadvert upon Mr. Jennings, concerning whose antecedents it knows nothing that has not appeared in print and has no curiosity.

But States cannot afford to become sponsors for well-advertised and self-advertised former outlaws. The popular inference would have been, had Mr. Jennings succeeded in using his career as a horse upon which to ride into office over the royal road of hero worship, that because a man has been a "bad man"—rather than because he is no longer so—Oklahoma is ready to give him preference.

"Beating back," as Mr. Jennings terms it in his book, is highly creditable. There should be a place in private life for a man who was once wayward and has returned to the straight road. But there are reasons why his occupancy of the position of Governor would be undesirable in its actual effect within the State as well as to constitute rather doubtful advertising of the State beyond its boundaries.—Courier-Journal.

And the Crown Prince is also showing that he can also swat a few frogs when it comes to the test.

FOOLISH PHILOSOPHY.

Honest labor is the best wheel of fortune. Many a man's self-conceit is due to ignorance. Experience would fail us as a teacher in a correspondence school.

Many a young man buys flowers for an heiress as an investment.

"Faithful are the wounds of a friend"—and friend.

All the world loves a lover—he makes such an exhibition of himself.

Genuine friendships deserves to be preserved in something else than alcohol.

No man is competent to be a King who loses his head while trying to save his face.

It is impossible for a man who isn't in love to write a love letter that sounds foolish enough.

As a general thing, if a man gets what he's worth he isn't subject to the income tax.

Our idea of a noble ruin is a castle that was torn down to keep it from shading the crops.

A warrior held

Sat down and sighed,
Because he could

Not fight, he cried.

The warrior sat on the stump of a log and sobbed. "Why the weeps?" asked the philosopher, who, going by, happened to be passing.

"I am in a quandary!" cried the warrior.

"Why not move over? Surely the whole seat isn't wet," suggested the philosopher.

"You don't understand. I am a warrior by right of heredity, and I want to fight. But there are insurmountable obstacles. I would join the German army, but I have two cousins in the Belgian ranks and I might shoot them. I can't join the French because my stepbrother and my brother-in-law are Ultras, and I wouldn't want to shoot them for the world. And I have relatives in the English, Russian and Hungarian armies. Oh, I am in quandary!"

"Listen to me and be happy," said the philosopher. "I am in the button business—little patriotic buttons with the flags of the various warring nations on them. Be one of my salesmen—when you sell to a German you can tell him what you think of the English and the French and vice versa."

"Deliverer!" cried the warrior, and accepted the job on the spot.—Louisville Times.

STRAIGHTFORWARD TESTIMONY.

Many Maysville Citizens Have Profited
By It.

If you have backache, urinary troubles, days of dizziness, headaches or nervousness, strike at the seat of the trouble. These are often the symptoms of weak kidneys and there is grave danger in delay. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney ailments and are endorsed by over 30,000 people. Your neighbors recommend this remedy—have proved its merit in many tests. Maysville readers should take fresh courage in the straightforward testimony of a Maysville citizen.

Henry Gallenstein, blacksmith, Poplar St., Maysville, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the best of kidney remedies. I have used different kinds and no other has ever equaled one. When my kidneys were out of order and I had pain in my back, I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. They stopped the pains and my kidneys became strong. The cure has been permanent."

Mr. Gallenstein is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Gallenstein had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50¢ all stores. NEWSY NOTES FROM EPWORTH

The people in this part of God's heritance are surely being fed on the "finest of the wheat" when it comes to a continuous spiritual uplift. The campmeeting with its powerful influence for righteousness—so recently closed, followed by a number of soul-stirring prayer meetings, the great basket meeting at Tabor and now a series of revival services at Galilee in which denominational lines are laid down and all church members are tiring up together for the purpose of fighting sin and bringing souls to Christ.

The evangelistic services being held at Galilee since August 18th, continue to grow in interest and the house is crowded to its capacity each evening. Rev. Ray H. Biser, the speaker is a young man of rare ability and his expounding of the scripture in a plain pointed practical manner, is uplifting and inspiring.

As Mr. Aleck Reeder was driving from Glenn Springs to his home near here Saturday last, his horse went through a hole in a bridge and its leg was broken. It had to be killed to end its suffering. Many of the bridges in this community are in a most deplorable condition and not at all safe to be driven over after nightfall.

SALOONS OR NO SALOONS.

Often it is said that when you touch a man's pocket book, you touch his heart. But it never seemed so sadly true as in the present issue of "Saloons or no saloons."

We hear not the question of which is right, nor which will come for health and long life, nor which will make happy homes and good citizens. But the one cry of objection from those who would keep the saloon is "property, taxes, revenue, commercial interests." Must the streets of the city be paved and lighted with blood money? One boy in four is the victim of strong drink. Do you barter your own or your neighbor's soul?

We knew that liquor clouded the brain and blinded the eyes and dulled the sensibilities of those that imbibed. But until this time we had not known that its very presence has the same effect upon some of those who only see and smell it from day to day. Scenes on the streets of Maysville on Saturday, court days and holidays are surely enough to touch the pride of any good citizen. In the presence of such sights can silent indifference continue even if business should suffer and taxes should increase? It may cost something to have a decent town. But the records of dry towns show that in most cases business has flourished as never before. Prosperity has taken the place of object poverty. Money that before was worse than squandered has gone into useful channels. Men are no longer incapacitated for work and can support their families. The chief cause of the heavy burden of crime, poverty, and insanity being removed; the public funds may be used to benefit the community instead of supporting those made helpless by the traffic.

More than once it has been clearly intimated that Maysville could take care of herself without the county's help. "What business has the county here?" Until now the county's products have found welcome market and have gone far to furnish Maysville's food supply. Until now our patronage of those markets, stores and banks has found a warm welcome. But where corruption for revenue is concerned, you are independent! Do you take our products and our dollars and return the blighted lives of our strong young men? This fight is our business for the reason that self-preservation is the first law of life. It is our business because as law-abiding citizens we have a right to protection. Our very lives are endangered. It is our business because of the inalienable rights granted to Ken-

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Bimley of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctoring for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work. I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16."

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish it had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

tuckians by our Bill of Rights. "The right of enjoying and defending their lives and liberties. The right of seeking and pursuing their safety and happiness."

Liquor traffic is the greatest enemy of our greatest institutions, the home, the school, and the church. Therefore it has no moral right to continue. It has no good excuse for its own existence."

In a Kansas case it was decided by the Supreme Court of the United States to be "a business in which no one may lawfully engage."

Sixteen of Kentucky's counties are preparing for the battles in September.

The States around us not already dry are making ready for State-wide prohibition. This is a national movement, even a world movement. We can only answer for Mason county just now. We must sweep before our own door before going out to clean up the world.

Which will it be on September 28th business or boys, houses or homes?

What is the wealth of the world without the priceless treasures of peace and safety, health and happiness? The strength of manhood in this proud, young country must protect its youth and defend its homes.

THE CHAUTAUQUA SALUTE.

A subscriber at Mt. Sterling sends the Courier-Journal a clipping from a religious newspaper in which a Texas minister assails the Chautauqua salute as "unscriptural and dangerous." The following extract indicates the line of his argument:

"I sat for eight days in the General Conference room in Oklahoma City and there was hardly an hour, day or night, but that the atmosphere in the room was almost thick enough to float one's hat, and every time the janitor lowered a window some old crumby fellow who was dying for the lack of pure air would jump up and pull the window down. But on top of all this impure air some nervous individual would pull off an occasional Chautauqua salute and empty out the germs from a thousand handkerchiefs on the already highly polluted atmosphere."

The writer goes on to say that in the interest of the public health the Chautauqua salute ought to be abolished by common consent. He makes the sensible suggestion that "the healthful exercise of hand clapping should take its place."

The ventilation in public buildings frequently is of negligible character.

In such a case as is cited at the Oklahoma City meeting it may be readily imagined that a general waving of handkerchiefs is likely to put in circulation the germs of tuberculosis, grippe and other diseases—and that, too, under highly favorable conditions for disease distribution.

Unfortunately there is a very large proportion of the human family that remains to be educated in the matter of proper ventilation. A Chautauqua salute in the open air with handkerchiefs of immaculate cleanliness might be harmless. In a crowded and poorly ventilated building the germ-bearing possibilities of hundreds and thousands of handkerchiefs in active service are appalling—Courier-Journal.

The streams likewise are being replenished with game. The drought has helped the fish through the spawning season and been beneficial to the fry placed in the Kentucky and other rivers by the Government fishery service. The fish spawn in the small tributary streams. Freshets cause the spawns to be washed away and the little fish torn from the protection of the mother to be devoured by enemies or killed by the sediment held in suspension. The lack of freshets has permitted the spawn to develop in shallow water and protected the fry east in these tributary streams.

Mr. Ward said Government experts declared Kentucky streams as a whole the best fish streams in the country. Most of them have rocky bottoms, where the fish can hide and where fish food thrives. This latter element determines the growth of the fishy population of any stream or body of water. Numerous tributaries also help as they afford proper spawning environments.

After undergoing hardships, many American tourists, who were in Germany when war was declared, have arrived in Holland. They report that they were treated courteously except on the day when England declared war, when many Germans assumed threatening attitudes on hearing English spoken.

Miami, Okla.—"I had a female trouble and weakness that annoyed me continually. I tried doctors and all kinds of medicine for several years but was not cured until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I hope my testimonial will help other suffering women to try your wonderful medicine." —Mrs. Mary R. Miller, Box 463, Miami, Okla.

Another Woman who has Found Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lindborg, Kansas.—"Some years ago I suffered with terrible pains in my side which I thought were inflammation, also with a bearing down pain, backache, and I was at times awfully nervous.

I took three bottles of Lydia E.

FRANCES BARNARD

Aged 15 Years, Dayton, Ky., Girl Won Three-Mile Swim at Cincinnati.

The youngest swimmer in the girls' race from the Gym, Boat club to the L. & N. bridge (three miles), Monday, won easily and was 75 yards ahead of her nearest competitor. She is Frances Barnard, 15 years old, of Dayton, Ky. She is a member of the Highland club, and she learned to swim only a year ago. She weighs 119 pounds. She made the distance in 1 hour 38 1/2 minutes. Of the nine contestants, only one failed to finish. She was Martha Miltz of Cincinnati.

"I could have gone two more miles I'm sure," remarked Miss Barnard as she emerged dripping from the water. There was a big crowd on hand to greet the nymphs after their long water journey.

Miss Anna Bell Ward of Maysville, Ky., was the only contestant who did not appear, and it is thought she was delayed.
